Free Methodist World Missions Hotline-

Pastor David Charles, who was murdered on Thursday by robbers, pastored the John Wesley Free Methodist Church in the West District (Port-au-Prince), a church with approximately 450 in attendance. He also served as the Haiti FMC legal representative, the church's liaison in government matters. David Charles' son is married to Jean Marc Zamor's sister. (Jean Marc is the Field Coordinator for FM Relief Response.)

From Dr. Delia Nuesch-Oliver:

Pastor David Charles' death is a terrible loss for the Free Methodist Church in Haiti. I knew him to be a powerful, yet gentle and wise man. We mourn with his family and with the Haitian church that has already suffered so much. We stand with them in prayer.

The Sister Circle Handbook Bible Study

The summer women's Bible study will be centered around building friendships. At the first meeting, June 1 at 7pm (room 225), it will be decided how the group will split into small groups and other meeting times will be determined. Books are available through the church office. We look forward to seeing you for a summer filled with building relationships and learning more about God.
