2010 Free Methodist Yearbooks can be ordered through in the church office June 27. Cost is $13.00 per book. Yearbooks include information about Free Methodist Churches and Conferences of North America.

*Brooke Gaeddert and Janessa McVicker will be participating in the 4th Annual McPherson ULSTER Project during the month of July. The coordinating committee for these lunches is still needing volunteers to provide 3-4 more lunches (sack or otherwise) for 18 individuals. The food would be a donation by you, and the delivery of it to wherever the teens are that day in McPherson, would need to be coordinated with the committee. If you would be interested in helping to provide one of these lunches, please contact Beth McVicker at 620-241-0321.

*Several Cedars residents who are pretty much alone and in need of a friend now have one. Members of the newly formed Advocates/Friends group at the Cedars are providing a smile or a listening ear, playing a game, perhaps reading to someone unable to read or maybe even hold a book. Some residents have difficulty expressing their needs, and an Advocate might be able to determine a need and communicate it to a staff person. Anyone who feels led to become an Advocate, or who wants more information, is invited to the next monthly meeting on Friday, June 25, at 10 AM in the Meditation Chapel at the new Wellness Center. Or you may call Judith Wineland, Administrator, at 241-0919, extension 125.

*If you borrowed the cookie sheets from the kitchen, please return them as soon as possible.

Free Methodist World Missions Hotline- Thailand

Pray for God’s direction as leaders in Thailand explore the possibility of setting up a home for unwed expectant mothers. The church desires to provide a safe place for giving birth and offering hope for the future. Teen pregnancy is common in Bangkok; social ostracism and abortion are the common “solutions.”

How Can We Say Thanks?

Karen and I were overwhelmed by the wonderful reception and the many cards and the outpouring of love. The gifts on the money tree were unexpected, but so appreciated. Your kindness and thoughtfulness were deeply felt by both of us and our entire family.

The past forty-seven years of ministry have been a blessing. We want you to know how we love the Lord. It has been a joy to serve Him. The past twenty-five years in McPherson have been the highlight of our ministry and for our family. You are loved and appreciated. It has been a privilege to serve you as Executive Pastor as well as Superintendent and wife.

“Thank you” just seems inadequate, but you know it is definitely sincere.

Love in Jesus Christ!

Prayerfully!

Tom and Karen Mayse
